Ruah Midbar (Hebrew: רוּחַ מִדְבָּר, lit. Desert Wind) is a rehabilitation centre in southern Israel. Located between Ashalim and Tlalim, it falls under the jurisdiction of Ramat HaNegev Regional Council. In 2019 its population was 53.[1]

The centre was opened in 2010 as a collaboration between the regional council, the Anti-Drug Authority, the Jewish National Fund, Mifal HaPayis, the Rashi Foundation and several government departments.[2] It serves people suffering from drug and alcohol addiction and eating disorders, and is run by the Yahadu Association.[2]
